Sometimes 4 day weeks have an added edge to them as teachers and students frantically try to cram 5 days of work and activities into 4. Adding PJ day into the mix certainly raised the excitement levels too.

Internet Safety talk

All parents are invited to attend an Internet Safety Training Session from the National Parents Council in our school on Tuesday 3rd December at 7:30pm. The talk will last approximately 1.5 hours and will take place in Room 1 and 2 in the Front Building

MS Readathon

Next week will be the last week of our really successful MS Readathon. We will then look for all of the cards and donations to be returned the week after. Well done to all who participated and devoured books. A special mention of thanks to Ms. O'Meara for all of the work and organisation that she has put into this initiative.

Frasai na seachtaine (phrase of the week)

Conas atá tú? – Tá mé go maith, go raibh maith agat.

How are you? - I am good, thank you

Swimming

Due to the General Election 2nd and 3rd classes will miss a swimming session. This has been rescheduled for Tuesday 17th December and will be their final session.

Christmas Concert

Our Christmas concert will take place on the morning of December 18th in the church. Exact time TBC

Survey on Hot School Meals

Our Hot School Meals have been running in the school now since after Easter and at this juncture I would like to gather some feedback from Parents and Guardians. When you get a chance can you please complete the following survey:

Winter Health Advice

See attached a 'Winter Health Advice' document sent to schools by the HSE for circulation to parents and school communities.

Vaccinations

The Junior Infants will receive their 4 in 1 and MMR vaccinations on 17th December

Hopefully everyone will exercise their democratic priviledge tomorrow and vote. Is mise le meas
